Summary of Past Week's Happenings
Over the Territory of Arizona, Borrowed, Stolen or Revamped.

The Boston Red Sox defeated the Yuma baseball team last week by a score of 8 to 3.

Work on the Adams hotel in Phoenix has been stopped, pending the result of the local option election.

A Mountainair, New Mexico, woman jumped on a wild cat and killed it. She was a married woman.

Gus Henderson, a miner in the Blue Bell mine near Mayer, missed his footing and fell about thirty feet into the shaft, killing him instantly.

Mrs. Francis Rodriguez, who was shot five times by her husband at Phoenix, died Monday. Rodriguez is in jail charged with murder.

Serious trouble is expected at Nelson, lime town west of Ash Fork, among Mexican laborers. A strike has been called and Prescott officers were sent to quell the disturbance.

Capt. J. E. Mitchell and Major Clymer of the Arizona National guard have been detailed to witness maneuvers of the regular army at San Diego.

Richard Garcia was shot and killed on the Greene cattle ranch in the southern part of the territory Monday by Refugio Encinas, for shouting for Diaz.

A son of Madam Schumann-Heink, the famous singer, has been cowboying near Tucson for a couple of months. He is not satisfied and yearns for New York.

Preparations are under way for an encampment of one battalion of University students at Tucson. They will carry the regulation equipment and will go into camp for a week.

All but three of Phoenix' saloons have been closed by the operation of a territorial law prohibiting the sale of liquor within six miles of public work. The new river bridge put them out of business.

Grand Army Reunion

Orders have been issued at Phoenix for the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Arizona, and April 15 is the date for the event. In selecting that date, the order states that it is the fifteenth anniversary of the firing on Fort Sumpter. One of the attractions will be a camp fire, under the direction of the Women's Relief Corps of Arizona. All veterans, whether delegates or not, are cordially invited to attend. General E. S. Godfrey is the department commander, while General A. J. Sampson is the adjutant general.

Local patronage is appreciated at F. L. M. Co. sawmill. We will be pleased to extend any favors possible to Flagstaff people. Prices reasonable.

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of Arizona

To Whom It May Concern:

Whereas, by Title 4, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1901, it is made the duty of the Governor to make a proclamation setting forth that in the counties of Cochise, Gila, Graham, Greenlee, Maricopa, Pima, Pinal, Santa Cruz and Yuma, the Friday following the first day in February of each year, and in the counties of Apache, Navajo, Coconino, Mohave and Yavapai, the Friday following the first day of April in each year shall be known as Arbor Day and observed as a holiday, and to recommend that said Arbor Day be observed by the people of the Territory in the planting of trees, shrubs and vines in the promotion of forest and orchard growth and culture, in the adornment of public and private grounds, places and ways, and in such other efforts and undertakings as shall be in harmony with the character of the day so established.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of said Statutes, I, RICHARD E. SLOAN, Governor of Arizona, do hereby proclaim Friday, the 3rd day of February, 1911, as Arbor Day, to be observed as provided by law in the counties of Cochise, Gila, Graham, Greenlee, Maricopa, Pinal, Santa Cruz and Yuma; AND FURTHER PROCLAIM that Friday, the 7th day of April, 1911, as Arbor Day to be observed as provided by law in the counties of Apache, Navajo, Coconino, Mohave and Yavapai.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Arizona to be affixed.

Done at the City of Phoenix,

the Capital, this thirteenth day of January, nineteen hundred and eleven.

(Seal) RICHARD E. SLOAN.

GEO. U. YOUNG,

Secretary of Arizon.

Gowns for the Spring Wedding

"The most fashionable wedding gown today is made in Empire effect, and it should carry out both in its lines and its trimming, simplicity. It is no longer necessary, however, to have the wedding dress made with a high neck and long sleeves. The short-waisted bodice cut out just a trifle at the neck is apt to be becoming and is considered correct in style," says Grace Margaret Gould in Woman's Home Companion for April. "Of course, it is needless to say that no bride wears a decollete gown at her wedding. The veil may be arranged entirely according to individual preference and may be of tulle or of lace. Many of the most effective gowns for the bridesmaids for spring weddings will emphasize flower effects. The chiffons, marquisettes and lovely, soft, filmy organdies with floral borders are much used for these gowns, worn with large picture hats."

"I love but her," sang the lovesick swain. "If it's butter you want you can get it at the corner grocery," called out her irate father.
